Look Before You Leap *Multi-Media Program

6th thru 12th

In both versions of this theatre quality production, hard-hitting content collides with rapid-fire visual effects and explodes onto 3 giant screens. Using a sky-diving theme to portray consequences of risky behaviors and an adrenaline rush of drama and comedy, this full throttle show aims to expose the risks teenagers take every day, from substance abuse to teen sexual activity.

Connecting Points DVD Discussion Guides Available! Each Class Pack is a set of 5 DVD's that feature 2-4 minute clips from Look Before You Leap with a discussion guide to facilitate small group conversation about: Drugs and Alcohol, the Teen Brain, Dating Violence, Eating Disorders, and STD's.

Justin Lookadoo *Assembly Programs

Pre-K thru 12th

Justin is influencing a powerful generation with hope for the future, excitement about the present, and courage to experience life without teenage sex, drugs, alcohol and violence. Because he understands youth, he can affect their decisions. Justin Lookadoo inspires them to "live a life with no regrets."

Mary Flo Ridley *Parent Programs

Parents of Pre-K thru 5th

Beginning with a mission statement which includes their own family's values, this presentation gives parents tools to become the loving authority in their child's life. Parents leave ready to answer questions such as "How did that baby get in there?" and "Why does my brother look different than me?" DVD Discussion Guide, Simple Truths with Mary Flo Ridley available!

Tory Gant *Assembly Programs

6th thru 12th

The Making of a Champion and Success for Teens are two of Tory's inspiring programs that walk students through victories that they win every day. Students discover that celebrating small victories will give them confidence to achieve anything. Tory's high energy, high impact presentation leaves students feeling good about themselves, their talents, and their abilities to make the right choices. His "Smile no matter what, make a friend of everyone" personality wins over the crowd in the first five minutes. Tory's program is the perfect launch for Success for Teens books in your school! (Books are free to each student who participates.)

Gabe Salazar *Assembly Programs

6th thru 12th

Gabe uses stories from his own life and hilarious skits to help teens Connect Choices and Consequences. Students relate to Gabe's teenage struggle for identity and appreciate his honesty about how peer influence, family life, and the media shaped his life. He gives teens a strong message about finding their identity, pursuing their dreams, and avoiding the risk behaviors (substance abuse, teen sexual activity, youth violence) that can derail their future. Responses from his program have included everything from students and faculty in tears over a touching story to students handing in drugs and cigarettes. Students have even renounced their gang involvement because of the message they heard from Gabe!

Jeffrey Dean *Assembly Programs

6th thru 12th

Jeffrey Dean is an international communicator, author, and an authority on teens and teen culture. His programs, including Change a Life, Change Your School, Change the World and Plugged-in Parenting, engage, empower and equip teens and parents with the tools needed to understand each other and better communicate. Rolling Stone Magazine said "Jeffrey Dean's hold-nothing-back approach challenges teens to make healthy choices that will benefit them for a lifetime!"

Keith Davis *Assembly Programs

7th thru 12th

Keith Davis is best known for his athletic successes at the University of Southern California and as a New York Giant in the NFL. His message for students, however, is not about achieving athletic greatness. By sharing his own personal trials and triumphs, Keith relates to every student and delivers the resounding message that with big Effort, focus on Education, and the Excellence they already possess, they can be champions in their own life. Despite struggling academically, Keith ultimately graduated as an Academic All American and with the top GPA of his team. He attributes his success to perseverance and dedication to his goal.

Lamar Collins *Assembly Programs

7th thru 12th

Lamar Collins, teacher and coach, challenges teens to rise above the negative influences of culture and live up to their potential. Entertaining and equipping, this presentation leaves students with the belief that they can control their future by avoiding high risk behaviors. In his Parent Programs and Staff Developments, Lamar reveals the mysteries of the teen brain and how adults can positively impact teens by understanding why they are biologically predisposed to making bad decisions. He equips adults to understand how setting healthy boundaries will protect students and set them up for success.
