

Justin Lookadoo

National Speaker & Author

Question:

Justin is a speaker like no other. He is boldly unapologetic in his effort to help students make good choices. Covering topics such as bullying, relationships, substance abuse and goal acquisition, he has a message to connect with every student. He has developed age appropriate programs for K-12th and also gives parent programs and Staff Developments.

Justin's interest in helping youth began as a college pre-med student when he studied the effects of drugs and alcohol on the brain. His concern turned into action in 1988 when he worked as a Juvenile Probation Officer Crime Prevention Specialist in the toughest part of East Texas. Over his six year tenure in the justice system, the referral rate to Juvenile Probation in Smith County dropped 61% below projections. Justin left the justice system to speak in public schools and at leadership conferences for MADD, DARE, and FFA. Currently, Justin travels across America, helping youth take on the issues they face every day. He connects with students of all ages through his witty, playful demeanor- but the impact of his presentation lasts far beyond the designated time allotted. Justin gives students practical steps to LIVE WITH NO REGRETS by choosing to avoid high risk behaviors.

He has conducted over 3,500 presentations, reached more than half a million students, and has appeared on numerous radio and TV shows.

"He throws humor into everything and makes it relatable."

-Teen

"These kids remember what he says every year. I just saw him do three different programs for three grades in ONE day. It was amazing the transformation that happened as we walked from one location to the other. Within a matter of a few minutes, he went from a high school to an elementary level. Incredible talent!"
